Board considered the matter of the request from property owners in the vicinity of the Diamond Springs Lighting District for a street light on Old Depot Road off Missouri Flat Road. A reply was received from Pacific Gas & Electric Company to the effect that it appeared that the desired location of the street light seemed to be out of said District. Thereupon, a letter was directed to the State Board of Equalization requesting the original legal description of the District, including any amendments thereto. A reply was received that a search of their records revealed they did not have a legal description of the District, as such; however, they did forward a crude sketch of same.
