The Board again considered an Ordinance deleting Section 10,222(d) (1) of the County Ordinance Code regarding grading and site drainage, and adding Chapter 70 of the Uniform Building Code, with modifications. (Sponsors: Supervisors Dorr and Lowe)

Mr. Tom Bullock, Building Official, recommended the following modifications:

1. Add to Section 7003 (Exceptions):
 10. "site development and utilities required with Class I subdivision";
2. Add to Section 7002:

"The appeals procedure specified in Section 204 applies to this Chapter."

Additionally, Mr. Bullock recommended that the Board set a date for a policy review session approximately six months after adoption of the Ordinance to ascertain the effectiveness of same and to analyze any public or County input which appears to indicate the need for changes.

Mr. Lin Brooks, representing the El Dorado County Soil Conservation Service, was present and spoke to the need for the Ordinance. Mr. Bill Rothaus, civil engineer, also spoke in favor of such an Ordinance, but is opposed to additional fees to support same.

Others who spoke in opposition to the Ordinance, because of the resulting increased costs to home builders and home buyers, are: Jerre Bruyn, representing P.R.I.D.E.; Dick Moody, of the Builders Exchange; Vern Sayles, of the Board of Realtors; Richard Stanton, resident of Shingle Springs; Ken Wilkinson; and Homer Banks, licensed civil engineer.
