CALL TO ORDER AND ADOPTION OF AGENDA

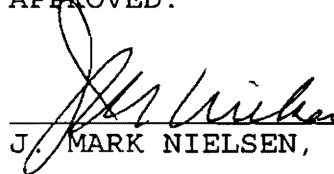

NuHBNS

Workshop with Planning Commission to discuss natural occurring asbestos and associated health risks.
No formal action taken. By consensus, however, Chief Administrative Officer requested to respond to questions set forth in Supervisor Bradley's memo to the Board dated April 24, 1999, as regards County administrative or internal management procedures; County Counsel requested to report back in 30 to 60 days on the question of whether the matter is within the sole provence of the Board of Supervisors, i.e., a comparison of the lawful authority of the County Board of Supervisors, Planning Commission, and Air Pollution Control Board; and University of California to be requested to focus on El Dorado County when conducting its study of this issue.
