 - 23 Issued
 - 16 Pending

Health and Human Services Agency

- Long-Term Recovery
 - No meeting this reporting week.
- Immediate Needs
 - No meeting this reporting week.
- Social Worker
 - Caldor Social Worker had a productive meeting with the Salvation Army Disaster Case Managers (DCM) last Friday. The DCMs will be sending them two referrals and evaluating one of the referrals for Housing Disability Advocacy Program (HDAP).
 - A Caldor family that had lost contact with the Social Worker was recently reconnected, and they were enrolled into the HDAP program - which will provide rental assistance and disability advocacy services.
 - The Staff attended the Pioneer Park Community Center today from 1:00pm - 3:00pm to provide assistance to survivors.
- Mental Health Worker
 - The Caldor Mental Health Worker continues to offer support groups for Caldor survivors, including going to Grizzly Flats door to door to inform survivors about the support groups. They will be doing more outreach like this in the future.
 - They are reaching out to more county staff to help inform the community about the support groups.
